

Government in Alleghany County

While many of the local governmental departments in the site guide to the right are directly administered by Alleghany County Government, other agencies receive county funds but operate under a combination of local, regional, state and federal mandates. Examples of these agencies include: (Links are to regional authorities, where available.)

Alleghany Arts Council

Appalachian District Health Department

Chamber of Commerce

Alleghany County Public Library

Alleghany County Board of Education

Alleghany Council on Aging

Blue Ridge Opportunity Commission

Blue Ridge Resource Conservation and Development Council

Forestry Service

High Country Council of Governments

NC Association of County Commissioners

Cherry Lane Volunteer Fire Department

Glade Creek Volunteer Fire Department

Laurel Springs Volunteer Fire Department

Piney Creek Volunteer Fire Department

Sparta-Alleghany Volunteer Fire Dept.

Alleghany Rescue Squad

Wilkes Community College - Alleghany Campus

If you have questions about government in Alleghany County, feel free to contact the County Administration office with your questions. You can email this office at alleadmin@skybest.com , call 336-372-4179, or drop by at 90 South Main St., Sparta NC.